Ike To Speak SHE PROBABLY Jan, 27 In Los Angeles

WASHINGTON (A) -- President Eisenhower will speak at a Republican fund-raising dinner in Los Angeles Jan. 27, the White House announced to-

The Republican National Committee had announced previously that Eisenhower would participate in a program of dinners set up for that date.

The Los Angeles dinner will be held in the Pan Pacific Audi-

Asked why Eisenhower chose Los Angeles for his appearance, White House press secretary James C. Hagery told reporters:

"Well, I guess he liked to go out to Los Angeles." He said he knew of no plans for Eisenhower to extend the visit to the coast, either before or after the speaking engagement.

Battle Brews Over Use Of Strip Of Land SULFA OPERAS

A battle is brewing over a 12foot strip of no-man's land in the Westland Terrace section of San Rafael.

The fight developed over a property owner's attempt to block public access to the strip, and the neighbors attempt to use it as a pedestrian walkawy.

The legal angles are not quite clear, but San Rafael city records show this much:

NOW WE WILL LISTEN IN ON

NEW YORK (UPI) - The National Broadcasting Company announced yesterday it is setting up a special radio network to carry medical news, soothing music and pharmaceutical commercials to doctor's offices.

NBC said the service will start out running 12 hours daily on FM frequencies in 16 cities, and later will cover 70 cities and 90 per cent of all doctors in the nation.

Henry T. Sjogren, project manager, said the new system would aid doctors who do not have the time to keep up with medical news. He said the music, between medical bulletins and commercials,, would be of a sort designed to put patients at

SEN. WILLIAM LANGER Colorful career closes

North Dakota Sen. Langer Dies At 73

WASHINGTON Sen. William Langer (R-N.D.), a colorful political maverick both as goveror and as senator, is dead at

He spent 45 turbulent years in politics, the last 19 of them in the Senate.

Langer died in his sleep of heart failure yesterday at his home. He had been ailing since his wife, Lydia, died of cancer Aug. 4. He recently spent three weeks in a hospital with pneumonia

SAFE COURSE

Langer steered a safe course through many a political whirlwind. In 1934 he easily won nomination for re-election as governor of North Dakota although he was under a federal indictment for conspiracy. Eventually he was acquitted.

Only last year he won reelection-without making a single campaign speech-in spite of the opposition of his own state Republican organiza-

POLICY FOE

In the Senate Langer voted against the Eisenhower administration more often than with it. He opposed Eisenhower's foreign policy. Anything proposed by Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson was almost sure to bring Langer's opposition Langer was an orator of the old school, who emphasized his words with windmill gestures and much banging on the desk. His trademark was a cigar forever clamped in his mouth. He never lit one.

Langer was the fourth member of Congress to die within a week. The others were House members.

Since Republican Gov. John Davis of North Dakota is sure to appoint a Republican to serve the rest of Langer's term, the Senate lineup of 65 Democrats and 35 Republicans will remain unchanged.

Book On Marin's Early History Given To Library

A rare volume of early days in the Samuel P. Taylor Park area has been presented to the Marin County Free Library by its author, Mrs. Bertha Stedman Rothwell.

Mrs. Rothwell's book is titled "Pioneering in Marin County." It describes her childhood in the area where her father, Stephen Stedman, operated a lumber business started by his father in 1854. The work includes her recollections of the Stedman family and Samuel P. Taylor, and description of the beginning of Camp Taylor. Virginia Keating, county librarian, received the book at a recent Marin County Historical Society meeting and said it has been put in the California Room, which contains a collection of books on Marin County history.

Rerailing cars from the Missouri Pacific train barely missed several homes. The railroad said damage would run into "thousands of dollars." Collinston has about 600 residents.

Several cars were loaded with soybean oil. Ditches by the track were full of the oil, and at several points it overflowed onto lawns.

The 146-car train was en route to Alexandria, La. Officials said the track was twisted for 400 yards. The accident was blamed on a journal box failure on one of the cars.

Governor Puts An End To 'Inordinate Burden Of Guff'

Of all the decisions Gov. Edmund G. Brown has reached since he was sworn into office at the start of the year, one stands out for its unique quality, for its wide appeal.

We refer to his decision not to issue any more proclamations of special days, weeks or months.

The governor reported he wasn't sure whether he got the idea during Better Health Through Pest Control Month or Emergencies Don't Wait Week. All he became sure of was "that the proclamation business has developed to the point where it puts an inordinate burden of time, energy and attention on the governor's staff and an inordinate burden of guff in the public prints."

"There are some worthy organizations and projects that a governor should support," Brown stated, "and I intend to assist philanthropic and charitable enterprises in other ways. But I'm through with all this proclamation business.

To which we say, "Hallelujah!"

We who have suffered under the proclamations for years appreciate the governor's firm stand. We long have been shielding the public from the "inordinate burden of guff" which most of the promotional days, weeks and months developed. We figured they just weren't news. Few found their ways into our pages.

But don't thing you'll escape scot free. We no doubt will remind you that the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Camp Fire Girls and others are doing a good job; that cancer, heart disease, the United Crusade (incidentally have you made the Big Give yet?) and others are worthy causes.

And if there happens to be a week or a month or a day connected with one of these, we might just mention that too.

You And Yummy Cake Mix

The female mind is weird and wonderful to behold at times. Take the matter of cake mixes, for example.

When they were first placed on the market these time-savers went over like a lead balloon. The manufacturers were puzzled because they were sure their product was good. They called in the psychological depth probers who discovered the trouble. They had made it

"Just add water," they advertised. Across the nation millions of housewives 'humphed. "What kind of cake is it that needs only a little water," they muttered. They felt that to use such a mix would deprive them of their glory and prerogatives as cook and homemaker.

The psychologists suggested that the manufacturers put the women back in the act. Let the ladies add an egg, then advertise, "You and Yummy together can make a delicious cake." This the cake mix people did and sales zoomed.

The cake was the same, but the ladies didn't feel so left out. Yummy had won their confidence by letting them partici-

THE WHY OF YOUR LIFE

'Where did we come from? Where do we go? And in between: why are we here?" The answer to these questions are at the heart of Eugene Vale's best-selling novel, "The Thirteenth Apostle."

This provocative story dwells in a most engaging manner on the "mystery of our role on earth—the great questions at the beginning and end of our existence.'

It is a gripping account of a search by an American consul, an artist, lost in the mountains of a small Caribbean country. The quest leads the consul into deep soulsearching of his own. Readers find themselves confronted by the same eternal challenge "which can be pushed from our minds, but cannot be denied."

God made you to know Him and love Him in this world, and to be happy with Him for one else. all eternity. The more fully you comprehend this divine purpose for your existence, the more meaning and nobility you will add to your own pilgrimage through life.

Rockefeller Running Under Own Steam

OUR LONG-NEGLECTED MOORING

(NOTE: How does Vice President Richard M. Nixon view the 1960 presidential race and his chances in it? Following is the first of three exclusive dispatches on Nixon by the chief of the United Press International Senate staff.)

By WILLIAM THEIS

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon and his advisers now expect Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller to seek the GOP presidential nomination in 1960. And they are convinced it's the New Yorker's own idea — not that Foster Dulles Memorial Librof Thomas E. Dewey or some- ary at Princeton University.

ner, will withhold his own formal announcement as long as possible. That probably means January, the deadline for entering the first-in-thenation New Hampshire presidential primary.

But the 46-year-old Vice President wants to keep any nomination contest on a high plane. He has instructed his supporters not to attack Rockefeller.

JUST BEFORE leaving for California last week, he told this reporter:

"While it is too early to make a decision on seeking the nomination, my general philosophy is that it is a mistake to run for the nomination and take your eye off the elec-

"If you're running for the election, you prove yourself worthy of the nomination. And I don't believe in tearing down party opponents. Even taking notice of them, except in a friendly way, is out."

In taking it for granted that Rockefeller has already dedecided to run, one Nixon aide said, "all the signs point to it. We have to assume that and we've assumed from the start there would be a fight for the nomination.'

THAT BELIEF WAS strengthened by Rockefeller's current speaking trip to Nixon's home state of California. It was beefed up further last week by Rockefeller's hiring a speech writer Hugh Morrow from the staff of Sen. Kenneth B. Keating (R-N.Y.). Morrow, a former newsman and magazine writer, worked in the campaign for Keating when he was Rockefeller's running mate last year.

The Nixon camp believes even more strongly that it is Rockefeller, rather than former New York Gov. Thomas E. Dewey or GOP State Chairman Judson Morhouse, who is 'pushing" the Rockefeller cause. The Nixon people base this on reports of personal political contacts made by the Governor in his own behalf.

Lady Luck is not to be underestimated. But Chief A. T. Henrich, leader of the Fairfax red shirts, believes there is another factor of even greater significance.

Ike May Give Other Nations A Morale Boost, That's All

WASHINGTON (A) - Presi- refusing to choose up sides. dent Eisenhower's December trip to three continents may give a morale boost to some of the nine nations he visits. But it's doubtful there will be any other effect.

In a sense, Eisenhower is making a return visit. Without exception, the top or almost top man from each of the nine countries on his schedule has been here in recent years, a number in recent months.

The nine are France, Italy, Morocco, Greece, Turkey, Iran Pakistan, Afghanistan, India.

THE PRESIDENT'S personality, going back to World War II days, has been of the kind that could quiet some troubled waters and get people to pull together.

He probably hopes his trip to Europe, Africa and Asia will have some of that affect, plus giving his hosts a sense of American goodwill. Beyond that, it's hard to see anything his trip will achieve except

There on Dec. 19, at the end of his trip, he sits down for a three-day meeting with President Charles de Gaulle, British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan and German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, as a preliminary to meeting Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev some time next year.

This meeeting is supposed to provide agreement among the Allies on what they will discuss with Soviet leader.

INDIA WILL probably get the biggest lift from Eisenhower's visit.

Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru, who has persisted in keeping neutral between the West and communism, has fallen on troubled days with his big neighbor, Red China.

It will be comforting to the Indians to have Eisenhower reassure them they have friends in the United States. Nehru already knew that.

It's probably because he understood it well that he has than-thou attitude and felt free to enjoy the luxury of theme for 1960.

The Moroccans have been talking of wanting the United States to pull out its military bases which were established there while Morocco was still a protectorate of France. The United States says it is willing and details are being worked Since Eisenhower isn't going there to negotiate on this problem, which takes time, he isn't likely to change anything there.

NOR IS HE APT to change anything in Afghanistan which, like India and Morocco, is a neutral.

When Afghanistan's prime minister, "Prince Sardar Mohammed Naim, visited Eisenhower here in October, he assured the United States Afghanistan's acceptance of large-scale Soviet aid has not altered Afghan friendship for this country.

Official opinion here at the time was that the Soviet Union was gaining slowly but surely in consolidating its economic and military influence over the neutralist kingdom in the Himalayas.

Pakistan, Iran and Turkey are linked with the United States and Britain in a Mid-East defense pact, and this year received almost a halfbillion dollars in aid from this Turkey is also linked with this country in the North Atlantic Treaty alliance, as are Greece, France and Italy. Each has problems of its own, but none is talking of leaving the alliance.

Drunken Driver Given Jail Term

Adolph Joseph Eberhart, 46year-old Mill Valley carpenter, must spend five days in jail and pay $250 fine for his second drunken driving offense.

He was sentenced by Judge Harold J. Haley of Marin Municipal Court.

Eberhart was caught on Highway 101 just south of Corte Madera on Oct. 29. He had a prior conviction in 1954. Eberhart lives at 181 Molino avenue, Mill Valley.

Another drunken driver barely escaped a jail sentence because two prior convictions were stricken from the records. Thomas Griffith Canlett Jr., 60, of Petaluma, who works for a laundry in Fairfax, must pay $250 fine. For six months, he may drive only for work and essential family errands. Canlett was caught on Highway 101 near Lucas Valley on Oct. 29. Two previous convictions, in 1942 and 1949, were stricken because of the length of time which has elapsed since the last one.

Marin Title Hope Upset By Novato

Novato's tough Hornets knocked Marin Catholic out of contention for the Marin County Athletic League championship Saturday afternoon by coming from behind in the final three minutes to nip the Wildcats, 12-7 at Kentfield.

Trailing 6-7 with time running out, the Hornets capitalized on the biggest break of the game to punch across the winning tally that erased any hope Marin had of tying champion Redwood for the MCAL's first grid crown. Now Marin, Novato, Tamalpais and San Rafael are bunched together in second place with 2-2 records. league standings with one week to play.

Turning point in the game, with three minutes to go, came when Marin quarterback Ron Blum bobbled a low pass from center and couldn't get a fourth down punt off. The heads-up QB managed to flip a pass, but it fell incomplete and Novato took over on the Wildcat 15.

Designer Urges Shapely Look, No Deformities

ROME (IPI)-Fashion designers should make women look like women - not like "superstructures," says an Italian designed who dresses Hollywood stars.

"I try to make all my models very wearable, with no acrobatics for acrobatics sake," said Renato Balestra, who recently opened his first salon in Rome. "I think a designer should draw his gowns to complete a woman, not to build superstructures on

He rarely relies on inspiration from past centuries because "fashion does not repeat itself." His gowns are simple, youthful and made of elegant fabrics. The result is a dreamy fantastic look which has attract ed such customers as actresses Zsa Zsa Gabor, Mamie Van Doren, and Joan Bennett and Mrs. Pat Brown, wife of California's

The son of an architect in Trieste, Balestra got into fashion designing by happenstance. As a youth he could not make up his mind about a career so eventually took his father's advice to study to be a civil engi-

This he did with more enthusiasm than results. After nearly 10 years at Triest University, his degree was nowhere in sight, but he did not seem to

Then, in April 1953, his fiancee-now his wife - wanted a new dress and asked Balestra to draw a sketch to show her seamstress exactly what she had in mind.

The seamstress liked the sketch and commented on its 'professional" touch.

That decided Balestra on a career. Days later, he was in Milan looking for a designer's job, carrying a collection of sketches. He got a job with Jole Venefor the Fontana sisters, a job he was to keep for a long time. In his spare moments, he made designs for Schuberth, Veneziani and other fashion houses. He also did some of the dress designing for Ava Gardner's films, "The Barefoot Contessa" and "The Sun Also Rises."

LAVENDER FLU

Your grandfather probably knew this cure. Flowers of lavender quilted in a hat were supposed to ward off "stuffed-up" noses and head colds. Pleasant treatment-but certainly not a sure cure. Today, thanks to medical science, we have numerous effective vaccines . . . against flu, whooping cough and other respiratory diseases . . . to immunize and protect us from the discomforts of infections. So, why suffer needlessly. Ask your physician about them. Let him prescribe the medication that is most effective for your needs. Then come to us for prescription service.

"I'll bet that husband of yours is a living doll

MAN'S CASTLE WON'T BE HIS HOME High taxes and upkeep costs are ousting the Duke of Norfolk and his family from historic Arundel Castle, right. Through the centuries the castle's occupants have defied invaders' attempts to oust them, but the cost of living has done what the invaders could never do. The duke and his wife, shown at left, with their four daughters will move next year into a smaller — 12 bedrooms — home now under construction on the 11,000-acre castle grounds on England's south coast. Arundel is one of the largest inhabited castles in the world, and has often been visited by royalty including England's present Queen Elizabeth and Prince Philip. (AP

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF THE COUNTY OF MARIN ORDINANCE NO. 1046 AN ORDINANCE PROHIBITING THE FILLING OF THAT CER-TAIN BODY OF WATER WITH-IN THE COUNTY OF MARIN KNOWN AS RICHARDSON BAY. THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS THE BOARD OF SUPERV OF THE COUNTY OF MARIN DO

SECTION 1: This Board of Supervisors has heretofore caused to be made extensive engineering studies of the problems involved in the control of flood waters in those areas of the County consti-tuting the watershed which discharges into that certain natural body of water known as Richardson Bay. Based upon these engineering studies, the Board of Supervisors of the County of Marin does hereby find:

(a) That Richardson Bay, as hereinafter described, serves as a natural floodway for the transportation and temporary storage of storm waters, flood waters, and tide waters, and that any con-struction not already existing in said hay would result in the flooding of extensive portions of the uplands and surrounding watershed tributary to Richardson Bay, the result of which will be to create unhealthy and unsanitary conditions, create hazards to life and property and produce other conditions adverse to the health, safety and general public welfare.
(b) That tidelands, streets, boulevards, canals and other lands with-in said Richardson Bay and which constitute said floodway are presently being filled and developed in such a fashion as to constrict said floodway and that such operations will continue unless immediately

(c) That any filling of said Richardson Bay in the area hereinafter described except in accordance with proper engineering solution of ne existing flood control problem will be directly contrary to the requirements of public health, safety and general welfare.

which requires urgent and immediate intervention by the County of Marin through the adoption of this ordinance to regulate the activities hereinabove referred to. SECTION 2: In view of the facts set forth in Section 1 hereof, it is hereby declared to be unlawful in the County of Marin, State of California, for any person, firm or corporation to permit, cause to perit, do or cause to do any of the

Construct within, deposit within, or fill with solid waste materials, dirt, earth, mud, garbage, refuse, or any material whatsoever, any of the lands, tidelands, streets, roads, boulevards, canals or channels, or any portion thereof, and whether privately or publicly owned, lying within the area described in Exhibit "A" attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference.

SECTION 3: The restrictions contained in Section 2 hereof shall not apply to lands, tidelands, streets, roads, boulevards, canals or channels, or any portion thereof filled and developed in accordance with a development plan approved by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Marin and which will County of Marin and which will not interfere with the use of Richardson Bay as a natural floodway. SECTION 4: Any person, firm or corporation violating the provisions of this ordinance shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon convic-tion thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in the County Jail for a period not to exceed six (6) months or by a fine not to exceed Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) or by both such fine and imprisonment. Each day during which any violation of this ordinance is continued or allowed to continue shall be deemed a new offense and shall

SECTION 5: This ordinance is hereby declared to be an emergency ordinance and shall go into effect immediately upon its adoption and shall be published once within fifteen (15) days following its adoption in a newspaper of general circulation published and circulated within the County of Marin with the names of the Supervisors voting for or against the same. The facts constituting the emergency and which require that this ordinance become effective immediately upon its adoption are set forth in Section 1 hereof.

The foregoing ordinance was passed and adopted at a regular meeting of the Board of Supervisors held on the 3rd day of November, 1959, by the following help. But how?

In California, the answer ac- three months. cepted by most people is the state's ever-expanding Aid to Needy Children program, which grants about 11 million dollars a month to more than 200,000 youngsters under 18.

Despite general acceptance of ANC as the means for taxpayers to help feed and clothe kids with no one else willing or able to do it, specific ANC policies have been under fire often since the program began

This year, too, cries of "abuse," "mismanagement" and "chiseling" have been heard. But before getting into the debate, let's examine the why, what and how of ANC.,

For the why, you probably needn't look further than the swelling statistics on divorce, separation and desertion - responsible for three-fourths of ANC cases — and illegitimacy, found in 25 per cent of the

In California, add to this the post-World War II influx of minority and lower economic groups, where are found most of the youngsters getting ANC

ANC is designed to help children avoid suffering from family breakdowns. It provides money to keep them healthy, and counseling, job placement and other services to keep families together until they can become self-supporting.

Monthly payments to help families meet minimum needs range up to $135 for one child, and to a total $321 for nine or more children, in addition to free medical care.

Payments may be more in special cases, although they're usually less. The average payment is $149 monthly.

The federal government supplies 41 per cent of the funds, the state 39 per cent and individual counties 20 per cent. California gets more such federal aid than any other state and its own ANC expenditure of around 60 million dollars a year tops all states.

The state Social Welfare Department sets rules for the program; counties enforce them.

Payments to children in boarding homes and other institutions—less than 6 per cent of those on ANC-reach $75 a month, paid by the state and counties.

In 1855 when the state began helping children, most aid went to institutions, for the care of orphans. But that problem has dwindled, since parents now live longer and life insurance is widely used.

Builder Sues County For Tax Refund

Mill Valley contractor Thomas D. McDougall filed suit in Marin Superior Court Friday to seek a $78 refund in county taxes paid over a threeyear period since 1955-56.

Attorney Albin L. Bjorklund Jr., of Sausalito filed the suit for the McDaugalls "on behalf of themselves and other persons similarly situated."

The McDougalls contend they filed a claim for refund of taxes last June 30, along with 319 other claimants. But their claims were turned down by the county on Sept. 1, the corcplaint alleges

The McDougalls point out that in 1955 the state Board of Equilization increased assessed valuations in Marin by 26 per cent. They allege that this increase in levy was erroneous and illegal, and therefore the taxes paid on the increased levy were illegal and should be refunded.
